

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : Director of Training
THRU : Chief, Operations School, OTR
FROM : Chief, Training Assistance Staff, Operations School
SUBJECT: Weekly Activity Report #29
DATE: 2, 1965

DATE: 27 September 1965

A SIGNIFICANT ITEMS:

None to report.

B. OTHER ITEMS:

1. [REDACTED] TRADECRAFT GUIDE:
[REDACTED] has finished the laborious job of typing the [REDACTED] Tradecraft Guide translated by the [REDACTED] from the Spanish version. The carbon from which she had to type was none too clear, so that in addition to having to consult the dictionary constantly she had the problem of eyestrain as well as tedium. She is relieved to be through with it, and we hope that a reading by a [REDACTED] speaker will not turn up many requirements for corrections. This chore, like the original review, will fall to [REDACTED] when he returns from his TDY in Latin America.

2. CHANGES:
and former [redacted] dropped in for a routine visit on 23 September. They brought us a copy of the Intelligence Corps Newsletter of 26 August containing information on the alleged simplification of the command structure [redacted]. As near as we can figure it out, a four-headed major general will be replaced by a b.g. and two colonels, each with the standard number of heads, and one command position will fade away like the traditional old soldier. (We have a copy of the Newsletter which is available for perusal by anyone who reads Army.) We do not think these changes will have any significant effect on [redacted].

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

3. FILMS:

a. [redacted] C/OCR/Graphics, arranged a showing for OTR instructors or a new, unadvertised film, "Life in a Prison Camp." According to the producer, the film was "made to order" for the Agency. [redacted] got the impression it might deal with hostile interrogation. I advised those instructors who are interested [redacted] of the showing. Unfortunately, it does not cover the subject at all.

b. VS AF/OSI, called to say that his training group would like to borrow OTR's film series again. One course is scheduled for mid-February. He said it was possible that a course will also be set up for November. I suggested he put his request in writing when OSI plans are firm.

c. [redacted] a former CIA staff member now with the Department of Labor, called to ask whether OTR had any films dealing with how to question witnesses in trial proceedings or how lawyers should conduct themselves in a courtroom. I suggested that he get in touch with CIC instructors [redacted]

4. TRAINING MATERIALS FORWARDED:

A small, empty square box is centered on the page. It is defined by a thin black border and contains no text or other content.
